Dear Mr. Anastasiades

RE: LETTER OF APPRECIATION FOR THE SECOND DONATION SHIPMENT RECEIVED

I hope and pray that this letter finds you in good health and steadfast in the grace of our Lord. I pray that the Lenten journey has started well for you too.

I take this opportunity to express my deep gratitude and sincere appreciation, first to the Parish Priest, the Parish Committee, and then to every faithful member of your blessed community, for your remarkable generosity. Once again, your loving gesture in sending 43 boxes of books and clothes has profoundly touched our Seminary community.

Your support has strengthened the sense that, though separated by distance, we remain united as brothers and sisters in Christ. Together with our teachers, seminarians, and staff, I warmly thank you. Your gifts brought immense joy and encouragement to all of us, and they stand as a living testimony of Christian love in action.

Be assured that your generosity is not taken lightly. Each contribution plays a meaningful role in supporting our educational and spiritual mission. For this reason, we continually pray that God grants you strength, good health, and every blessing, so that you may continue your holy ministry and dedicated service to our Orthodox Church in London.

Once again, please accept our heartfelt thanks. May the Lord reward your kindness abundantly.

In His Service,

ARCHBISHOP MAKARIOS TILLYRIDES

Metropolitan of Nairobi & Exarch of Kenya and Eastern Africa
